Scripture: John 8:1-11

¹ But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.² At dawn he appeared again in the temple courts, where all the people gathered around him, and he sat down to teach them.³ The teachers of the law and the Pharisees brought in a woman caught in adultery. They made her stand before the group⁴ and said to Jesus, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the act of adultery.⁵ In the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?"⁶ They were using this question as a trap, in order to have a basis for accusing him. But Jesus bent down and started to write on the ground with his finger. ⁷ When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, "If any one of you is without sin, let him be the first to throw a stone at her."⁸ Again he stooped down and wrote on the ground. ⁹ At this, those who heard began to go away one at a time, the older ones first, until only Jesus was left, with the woman still standing there.¹⁰ Jesus straightened up and asked her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" ¹¹ "No one, sir," she said. "Then neither do I condemn you," Jesus declared. "Go now and leave your life of sin."

Mercy: Wrongs Made Right

Smile

Sometimes the best medicine for enjoying life and lifting spirits is spending time with your Grandchildren.

Counselor and Professional Life Coach

Sometimes i just wish i had the wisdom of a 90 year old, the body of a 20 year old and the energy of 3 year old.

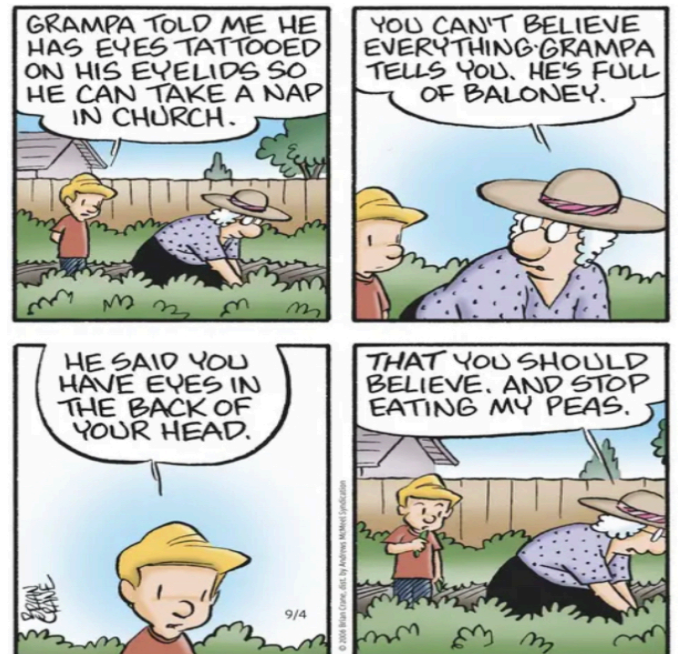

A Grandma is a child's second mother. She's another source of hugs, of smiles, of encouragement, of love. Anytime a grandchild needs someone to talk to, or just to listen, a Grandma will always be there for them.

"Now how am I supposed to squeeze all my stuff in the little space you've left me?"

Definition of perfect pitch- when you toss an accordion into the dumpster and hit a bagpipe.

WHY SHOULD YOU NEVER LAUGH AT YOUR SPOUSE'S CHOICES? BECAUSE YOU'RE ONE OF THEM.
